

Managing your squiggly career and personal brand

Thu, 11th March 2021

19:00 to 20:00

Online

Registration is required

Professional Women's

Network

Sponsor

Register \(https://www.event...

View all events \(/events\)

International Women's Day 2021

Join Allyson Stewart-Allen, renowned advisor, author, speaker and educator for this talk on personal branding and non-linear career paths.

A regular on the UK 'The Apprentice', Allyson Stewart-Allen will talk us through her non-linear/squiggly career journey, and provide her top tips for controlling your own satisfying and successful journey and managing your profile and brand along the way.

Allyson will be joined by Camilla Brown, Co-Founder and Director of Collagin (<https://collagin.co.uk/>), the original gin with added collagen, as seen on Dragons' Den, Lorraine and Sky News

Sponsored by the Professional Women's Network, this event requires registration.

The first 50 registrants via Eventbrite (<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/international-womens-day-21-oxford-said-professional-womens-network-registration-142124118063?aff=web>) will receive sample-size bottles of Collagin (non-alcoholic alternatives are also available).

Event speakers

Allyson Stewart-Allen

Camilla Brown

